Dreaming the Maya Fifth Sun By Leonide Martin

Suppose dreams were portals to different realities? ER nurse Jana Sinclair's recurring dream compels her journey to jungle-shrouded Maya ruins where she discovers links with ancient priestess Yalucha, who was mandated to hide her people's esoteric wisdom from the Conquistadors. Jana's reluctant husband is swept into strange experiences and warns against further involvement. As the Maya calendar approaches its ending in 2012, Jana answers the call across centuries to re-enact a mystical ritual for successful transit into the new era, contending with dark shamanic forces bent on preventing her mission and her husband's devastating ultimatum—and activates forces for healing their relationship.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Leonide Martin, RN, DrPH, author, teacher and counselor, has written many professional nursing books. Her fiction focuses on the hidden wisdom of the ancient Maya and their message for humanity. Captivated by this great culture, she has studied with elders and performed shamanic ceremonies, while doing extensive archeological/anthropological research. This foundation makes her uniquely capable of uniting scientific facts with spiritual truths. She is an ordained Priestess of Isis and Maya Solar Initiate, certified in Intuitive Healing and Archetypal Consulting by Dr. Caroline Myss. Her fascination with the Maya led to this novel, first in the trilogy Maya Visions.
