Developing the Leader within you By John C. Maxwell

Each idea, each thought about leadership, has been revised to fit the contemporary world, by the internationally famous and best-selling author Maxwell. The book will aid you in discovering your own strengths and weaknesses as a leader. It has been sold in millions and is not to be missed if you are looking for some significant guidance on effective and result oriented leadership abilities. This is the author's first and the most widely read book on leadership which explains that leadership is not just about leading people alone, but is about setting standards for the role itself, as a leader. It helps for those who lead businesses, churches, or any other groups or organizations.
