Editorial Review

Review

"Parents today need a very special kind of help. They want their children to spend time on things other than technology. But what can they suggest as an alternative? Bobbi Conner's latest book, The Giant Book of Creativity for Kids, provides the answer of what to do instead! It is a parent's perfect go-to guide for ideas that spark creativity and fully engage a child's mind."—Jill Stamm, PhD, author of Bright from the Start

"Don't fret about how children today are spending too much time on electronics and commercially produced toys. Run, don't walk, to get a copy of The Giant Book of Creativity for Kids. It is truly an exceptional resource for turning everyday moments into opportunities for family fun, creativity, and memories that last. The ideas are easily and quickly doable—even for the busiest parents—and are all low to no-cost, but the rewards will be priceless."—Ellen Galinsky, author of Mind in the Making

"Bobbi Conner is sophisticated about developmental, social, cultural, and psychological issues, but she is also just plain fun!"—Mary Pipher, PhD, author of the New York Times best seller Reviving Ophelia

"Bobbi Conner is highly regarded by all of us in the pediatric world committed to providing accurate and useful information to parents."—Laura Jana, MD, media spokesperson for the American Academy of Pediatrics

"Bobbi Conner understands what parents need to know."—Jane Healy, PhD, educational psychologist and author of Your Child's Growing Mind

"A treasure trove of creative ideas, games, songs, and activities for children of all ages."—David Elkind, PhD, author of The Power of Play and Parenting on the Go
