Editorial Review

Review

"An incredibly in-depth history of progressive rock's beginnings and the many bizarre paths it's followed since, it includes interviews with the movement's key players, insanely detailed accounts of recording sessions, and pretty much everything you could ever care to know about King Crimson." --Chicago Reader

"Prog Rock FAQ is a sprawling collection of interviews, authorial opinions and anecdotes. Progheads will devour it but open-minded music buffs of all sorts will also find much to savor, especially chapters on unknown but fascinating-sounding bands inspired by the idea that rock should be more than an endless echo of 'Louie Louie.' Portions of the book are devoted to current bands, buttressing Romano's other theme: Prog lives!" --Express Milwaukee

"Immensely readable for fans, this book combines [author Rob] Romano's intricate knowledge of the genre with his obvious passion for the music." --Progression Magazine

"The author has taken a well-researched and reasoned approach in looking behind the scenes at a myriad of artists and seminal releases issued over the long history of prog rock... Those who simply can't get enough of Yes, ELP, Jethro Tull, Genesis, Porcupine Tree and more, you have found the perfect read." --Desert Star Weekly, January 7
