Not Guilty: Experience God's Gift of Acceptance and Freedom (Life Solutions Series) By Creflo A., Jr. Dollar

For more than eighteen years I have repeatedly studied the subject of righteousness, and I am still amazed by it. Each time I thought I fully understood righteousness I would uncover deeper layers of revelation knowledge, which forced me to admit I had much more to learn.

It is much deeper than we think.

Our righteousness in Christ is the centerpiece on which Christian faith is built. Everything God's Word promises us hangs on it, and the entire structure of our salvation is built upon it. If we are going to walk in the joy of our salvation and the power of the promises we have in Him, we must understand our righteousness in Christ.

When Christians hear the word righteous, nearly all of us think we understand what it means. The biggest part of the problem is that very few understand. We only think we do. Often, our religious traditions have distorted our understanding of righteousness. Consequently, the authority that God intended for us to have has been rendered totally ineffective.

This means some of our religious traditions have to die. That's okay. The truth is, many of us have been at the mercy of inaccurate scriptural translations injected with personal theologies. We've been victims of a "Well, that's the way we've always done it" kind of thinking. The watered - down traditions that have resulted have seduced many into a powerless, ineffective form of religious thinking instead of the vital, dynamic faith that really can move mountains.

Think about it. If traditions and religious thinking have all the answers, then why are so many of us living broke, disgusted, and defeated lives? Why are our kids still plagued with drugs? Why are debts still overwhelming to so many of us? Why are so many people still dying of cancer?

The raw truth, for so many people, is that nothing is working. Why? Because something is missing. A major part of the equation is simply not there; that is, a proper understanding of our righteousness in Christ.

This book was written to help God's righteousness become real in your life. In fact, I want it to be so real that Satan loses his grip on you. I want you to experience the life and power God intends for you to have through the gift of righteousness. If you attain an unshakable confidence in the righteousness of God, then this book will have achieved its purpose and the righteousness of God will make a mark in your life that cannot be erased!

For What He Did, You Can Have it All!

Many Christians have been seduced into thinking that they must earn the right to experience the forgiveness of sin and the joy of answered prayer. They often feel guilty about their wrongdoing and try to make up for it through "good works." Even seasoned Christians struggle to overcome feelings of unworthiness, fear, doubt, unbelief, and condemnation that the enemy sends their way. The result is that they remain beneath the standard of living God has intended for them to experience.

The truth is that God, through the finished work of Jesus Christ on the cross, has already made you righteous. Nothing you could ever do will make you more or less righteous in God's eyes. Good works, which are of great benefit to others and ourselves, are simply the product of our righteousness.

As you gain biblical understanding of how this right standing with God is meant to work in your life, you'll begin to experience the joy of your salvation. The reality of the promises found in the Word of God will then begin to fall in place.

Centering his teaching on God's Word, Dr. Dollar explains how righteousness—standing whole, perfect, and unblemished in God's eyes—is a position guaranteed to everyone who believes. This revelation will give you the platform to launch every other kingdom principle successfully.

Because of His sacrifice, you are Not Guilty!

In February 1986, World Changers Church International held its first worship service with only eight members at Kathleen Mitchell Elementary School in College Park. The Master Key

What would you say if I told you there is indeed a master key that unlocks everything in the kingdom of God here on earth? What would you say if I told you that the key is already in your possession? What if I told you that it is God's desire for all of us to have the power to transform our lives and the lives of those around us?

To be used by God in these last days, to accomplish something significant for the kingdom of God, we must discover and learn how to use the master key.

God has not hidden full understanding of this master key from us. In fact, those of us who have accepted Jesus as our Lord and Savior possess this key. God has revealed this master key to us through His Word; when we use the key properly, it will open to us the endless treasure of His grace. When we unlock that treasure, we will finally be able to live in the blessings bought and paid for by the blood of Jesus.

I want to warn you, though, that when you hear the truth concerning the master key, you will be tempted to think, Oh, I know what that is, or, I understand that concept. The reality is that many of us do not understand it; we only think we do.

I know this because I thought the same thing years ago. Over the last couple of years, however, while searching the Word on a subject totally unrelated, new revelation proved how shallow my understanding was. I realized that I would have to hit the books again and that some of my long-held religious beliefs would have to change. I had to do this because religious traditions have robbed many of us of the deep and rich relationship God desires to have with us.

I am convinced that man-made doctrines of religious tradition are the greatest enemy of the church today. This kind of religion creates a consciousness and a system of beliefs that can cause us to completely misunderstand our relationship with God. This form of religion denies the life and power of the gospel of Jesus.

Now, after eighteen years of periodic study and three years of intense study, I share this master key with you. It will be no surprise to me, however, if the Lord is not yet finished revealing layers of understanding concerning this subject.

Righteousness is the master key. By correctly understanding how righteousness works in God's plan for man, we can more effectively use this master key to open the treasures of the kingdom of God.

Justified by Righteousness

Let's begin with a foundational Scripture that puts the various elements of righteousness in perspective. Let's examine this passage from Romans chapter 3 in The Amplified Bible. It is a bit long, but I encourage you to slowly read it all the way through.

For no person will be justified (made righteous, acquitted, and judged acceptable) in His sight by observing the works prescribed by the Law. For [the real function of] the Law is to make men recognize and be conscious of sin [not mere perception, but an acquaintance with sin which works toward repentance, faith, and holy character].

But now the righteousness of God has been revealed independently and altogether apart from the Law, although actually it is attested by the Law and the Prophets,

Namely, the righteousness of God which comes by believing with personal trust and confident reliance on Jesus Christ (the Messiah). [And it is meant] for all who believe. For there is no distinction,

Since all have sinned and are falling short of the honor and glory which God bestows and receives.

[All] are justified and made upright and in right standing with God, freely and gratuitously by His grace (His unmerited favor and mercy), through the redemption which is [provided] in Christ Jesus,

Whom God put forward [before the eyes of all] as a mercy seat and propitiation by His blood [the cleansing and life-giving sacrifice of atonement and reconciliation, to be received] through faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in His divine forbearance He had passed over and ignored former sins without punishment.

It was to demonstrate and prove at the present time (in the now season) that He Himself is righteous and that He justifies and accepts as righteous him who has [true] faith in Jesus. Romans 3:20-26 AMP

Notice what's at stake where our righteousness is concerned: justification. We are either justified by faith or not at all.

"Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified..." (v. 20). That word justified means "declared righteous." In other words, we are righteous for no other reason than the fact that God has declared us righteous.

Verses 21-22 say, "...being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith...."

Righteousness by faith is a little like being born into a family. I was born into the Dollar family. I am a Dollar based on my family's declaration. I did not have to do anything to become a part of the Dollar family. My parents simply declared me "Creflo Dollar."

The same kind of dynamic is at work when we are born again. When we realize we need a Savior to forgive our sins and bring us into fellowship with God, and we ask Jesus to do those things, we are born again. When we are born again, we are declared righteous and made members of the family of God. Being born again does not include instructions on how to do something to become righteous. They are not necessary. We are born again and declared righteous by the Word through our faith and belief in Jesus Christ.
